It Was An Honor* Grabs Top Honors in $15k Rising Star Pacing Series Final

Scarborough, Maine (June 19, 2010) – It Was An Honor grabbed top honors in the $15,000 final of The Rising Star Pacing Series at Scarborough Downs on Saturday (6/19).

Driver Kevin Switzer secured his second-consecutive convincing score with the 4-year-old son of Western Terror, demolishing an accomplished stakes field and romping to an open length route.

Jointly-owned by Golden Hour Stables and The KDK Standardbreds, It Was An Honor blazed around the Seaside Oval, stopping the tele-timer in 1:55.4, just 2/5th of a second off his lifetime best.

Wish All You Want (Ron Cushing) was second, followed by LPs Magic (James Hardy) for the show.

Next up on the Downs racing schedule will be The Mid-Summer Classic Pacing Series, which gets underway Saturday, June 26th and features three elimination rounds, culminating in a $25,000 final on July 17, coinciding with Scarborough Downs' 60th Anniversary celebration. Get to the track!
