Drew Campbell: Good deed-doer and good driver too

Scarborough, Maine (Oct. 23, 2009) – Call it karma, call it comradeship or simply call it good horsemanship but Scarborough Downs' leading driver Drew Campbell possesses it in spades and was aptly rewarded for an exceptionally unselfish good deed on Friday afternoon with an outstanding day on the racetrack.

In the early going of the afternoon's third race driver Kevin Pillsbury was unseated heading into the first turn. While uninjured in this mishap, Pillsbury was unable to rein in his horse and the now driverless pacer Sids Drama continued up the backstretch still in hot pursuit of the field.

Rounding into the paddock turn, Campbell's horse Goodgirlgonebad veered wide, effectively taking herself out of contention. Campbell then quickly turned away from his misfortune to don the garb of the Good Samaritan and concentrated his sole attention toward corralling the still loose Sids Drama.

"I never really thought about it," Campbell explained. "I was pretty much out of the race and I heard the loose colt coming up behind me. I just decided to try to catch him and was able to grab him by the rein. I got him delivered to track security just before we got to the finish line."

That finish line would become a familiar place for Campbell during the remainder of the card as the top-rated driver then began a near unprecedented assault on the wire, securing five trips down victory lane with wins aboard Drollinger, Diamond Deal, Mr D B, Par One and JJs Pocket while extending his meet's leading win tally to 179 on the season.

Campbell now trumps his nearest rival, Rob Dinning, by a seemingly insurmountable margin of 44 wins but more importantly perhaps, now knows that Karma is firmly on his side.

Truly no good deed goes unrewarded – especially at the races.

Scarborough Downs proudly features live harness racing every Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 12:45 pm (EDT).
